On December 20, 2005, Examiner Schillinger agreed to vacate the pending office action, mailed October 4, 2005, and replace the pending office action with a new office action. On or about March 24, 2006, the Examiner was notified that Applicant's representative had not received the new office action as promised. Examiner Schillinger replied with a voice mail stating that she could not remember the issues that needed to be addressed. Accordingly, Applicant's representative provided a lengthy voice mail for Examiner Schillinger which again demonstrated the deficiency of the pending office action.
